Findings and Conclusions	1
1. The Role of Air Transportation in the Regional Economy	1
2. The Regional Air Transportation Market	2
3. The Future of the Regional Air Transportation System	3
1. The Role of Air Transportation in the Regional Economy	5
1.1 The Structure of the Regional Economy	5
1.2 The Airports in the Regional Economy	7
1.3 Regional Aviation Demand	9
1.4 The Regional Air Transportation System	10
2. The Regional Air Transportation Market	13
2.1 Regional Demand For Air Transportation	14
2.1.1 Types of Passenger Demand	14
2.1.2 Market Accessibility: How Passengers and Airports Relate to Each Other	17
2.1.3 Cargo Demand	18
2.2 Regional Supply Of Air Transportation	24
2.2.1 Air Service and Airline Competition	24
2.2.2 Regional Airport Facilities	26
2.3 The Strengths of the Existing Regional Airport System	33
2.3.1 The Role of LAX	33
2.3.2 The Emergence of Secondary Airports	34
3. The Future of the Regional Air Transportation System	37
3.1 Capacity Construction Lead Times	37
3.2 Lessons Learned from Other Regions	38
3.3 Trends Affecting Future Passenger Demand and Air Service Supply In The Region	39
3.3.1 Future Demographics	39
3.3.2 Cargo Demand	41
3.3.3 Regional Highway System	42
3.3.4 High Speed Rail Potential	43
3.3.5 Competition from Other Regions	44
3.4 Potential Air Service Supply at the Region's Airports	46
3.5 Implications for the Regional Air Transportation System	50
Appendix: Future Airport System Scenarios	53
A.1 SCAG RTP Scenarios	53
A.2 LAX Master Plan Forecast Scenarios	54
A.3 Additional Airport System Scenarios	55
